2. BASIS OF CONTRACT

2.1 These Conditions apply to the Contract to the exclusion of any other terms that the Customer seeks to impose or incorporate, or which are implied by trade, custom, practice or course of dealing.

2.2 The Order constitutes an offer by the Customer to purchase the Goods in accordance with these Conditions. The Customer is responsible for ensuring that the terms of the Order submitted by the Customer are complete and accurate.

2.3 The Order shall only be deemed to be accepted when the Company issues a written acceptance of the Order, at which point the Contract shall come into existence.

2.4 Any Offer for Ex Stock Goods are made subject to the Goods remaining unsold at the time of receipt of Order. Ex Stock means available for despatch in the Company's Warehouse.

2.5 The Customer waives any right it might otherwise have to rely on any term endorsed upon, delivered with or contained in any documents of the Customer that is inconsistent with these Conditions.

2.6 All descriptions of the products and services contained on the Website or otherwise communicated to any Customer are approximate only and shall not form any part of the contract between the Company and the Customer. The Company shall not be liable to the Customer for any errors or omissions on the Website, the Company's catalogues or other product advertisement. The advertising of products and services on the Website is not an offer capable of acceptance; it merely constitutes an invitation by the Company for the Customer to make an offer to purchase products and services. The Customer's acceptance of the Customer's order will take place when the Company confirms pricing and delivery dates to the Customer in writing, at which point a contract will come into existence between the Company and the Customer.

2.7 A quotation for the Goods given by the Company shall not constitute an offer. A quotation shall only be valid for a period of 30 Days from its date of issue.

3. DELIVERY

3.1 The Company shall ensure that:

- (a) each delivery of the Goods is accompanied by a delivery note that shows the date of the Order, all relevant Customer and Company reference numbers, the type and quantity of the Goods (including the code number of the Goods, where applicable), and, if the Goods are being delivered by instalments, the outstanding balance of Goods remaining to be delivered; and
- (b) if the Company requires the Customer to return any packaging materials to the Company, the Customer shall make any such packaging materials available for collection at such times as the Company shall reasonably request.

3.2 The Company shall deliver the Goods to the location set out in the Order or such other location as the parties may agree (Delivery Location) at any time after the Company notifies the Customer that the Goods are ready.

3.3 Delivery is completed on the completion of unloading of the Goods at the Delivery Location.

3.4 Any delivery periods present on the Website are subject to confirmation before acceptance of order and, unless otherwise stated in the quotation, may be withdrawn without notice at any time prior to acceptance of order.

3.5 Any dates quoted for delivery are approximate only, and the time of delivery is not of the essence. The Company shall not be liable for any delay in delivery of the Goods that is caused by a Force Majeure Event or the Customer's failure to provide the Company with adequate delivery instructions or any other instructions that are relevant to the supply of the Goods.

3.6 If the Company fails to deliver the Goods, its liability shall be limited to the costs and expenses incurred by the Customer in obtaining replacement goods of similar description and quality in the cheapest market available, less the price of the Goods. The Company shall have no liability for any failure to deliver the Goods to the extent that such failure is caused by a Force Majeure Event or the Customer's failure to provide the Company with adequate delivery instructions or any other instructions that are relevant to the supply of the Goods.

3.7 The Company accepts no liability for loss of goods or non-delivery unless notice is given to the Company and to the carrier within 21 days of the date of despatch, or in the case of exported goods, within 40 days from the date of shipment.

3.8 If the Customer fails to take delivery of the Goods within three Business Days of the Company notifying the Customer that the Goods are ready, then, except where such failure or delay is caused by a Force Majeure Event or the Company's failure to comply with its obligations under the Contract:

- (a) delivery of the Goods shall be deemed to have been completed at 9.00 am on the third Business Day after the day on which the Company notified the Customer that the Goods were ready; and
- (b) the Company shall store the Goods until delivery takes place, and charge the Customer for all related costs and expenses (including insurance).

- 3.9 If, after ten Business Days after the day on which the Company notified the Customer that the Goods were ready for delivery, the Customer has not taken delivery of them, the Company may resell or otherwise dispose of part or all of the Goods and, after deducting reasonable storage and selling costs, account to the Customer for any excess over the price of the Goods or charge the Customer for any shortfall below the price of the Goods.
- 3.10 The Company may deliver the Goods by instalments, which shall be invoiced and paid for separately. Any delay in delivery or defect in an instalment shall not entitle the Customer to cancel any other instalment.
- 4. QUALITY
- 4.1 The Company warrants that on delivery, and for a period of 12 months (or sooner if stated on our order confirmation) from the date of delivery (warranty period), the Goods shall:
- conform in all material respects with their description; and
